COMMUNITY GARDENS

Internship Opportunity

Empowering people of all ages and incomes to grow and eat healthy, organic, local food.

For 30 years, Wasatch Community Gardens has provided Salt Lake County residents with gardening resources and education, enabling them to grow their own fresh produce in urban gardens and have access to healthy, organic, local food.

What we do:

- Manage 16 community gardens, allowing nearly 500 individuals and families to grow their own fresh, organic produce.
- Provide opportunities for more than 1,200 youth, many of whom are from low-income families, to learn about growing and eating healthy food in our youth gardens.
- Offer 40 classes and hands-on workshops per year, educating more than 500 community members about growing and eating fresh, healthy food.
- Support school gardens at 10 Title I elementary schools, serving over 3,400 students.
- Provide employment and job training to women currently experiencing homelessness at our Green Team Farm.
- Organize more than 1,200 volunteers who contribute over 14,000 hours of service annually.
