COMMUNITY GARDENS

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY
EMPOWERING PEOPLE OF ALL AGES AND INCOMES TO GROW AND EAT HEALTHY, ORGANIC, LOCAL FOOD.

For 25 years, Wasatch Community Gardens provides Salt Lake Valley residents the opportunity and knowledge to grow their own food in urban gardens, while aiming to help improve access to healthy, organic, local food.

What we do:

- Offer support to more than 33 community gardens, allowing more than 800 individuals, groups, or families - including 130 refugee families - to grow their own organic produce;
- Provide opportunities for more than 1,600 primarily low-income youth to learn about growing and eating healthy food in our youth gardens;
- Educate more than 400 people in 50 workshops that speak to a variety of topics ranging from starting a community garden to canning & preserving produce.
- Manage more than 1,300 volunteers who contribute over 12,000 hours of service.
- Donate more than 5,000 pounds of produce annually to our local food pantries.

Community Gardens History Intern:

Unpaid - estimated 100 - 150 hours total, 5 - 10 hours per week
